IPPL Book Bundle

Chicka Chicka Boom Boom

by Bill Martin Jr. & John Archambault

After reading the book, reenact this familiar story with your child.

- Grab a piece of paper and a writing utensil. Ask your child to draw the story.
- Use magnetic alphabet letters on your refrigerator.
- Trace the letters in table salt, outside in the sand, or for a really messy time use shaving cream.
- Build the alphabet out of play dough or pipe cleaners.

Eating the Alphabet

by Lois Ehlert

After reading the book, talk about some of the new vocabulary words that your child has been introduced to.

- Try eating a new fruit or vegetable.
- Take a trip to the grocery store and let your child look at some of the different fruits or vegetables.
- Ask your child what letter the fruit or vegetable begins with.

Here Come the ABCs

by They Might Be Giants

This CD also comes with a DVD containing more features and content about the songs.

- Pick a song to learn together.
- Take the CD in the car with you.
- Host an alphabet dance party in your house — dance with your child and teach them a dance or dance move that you know!

Letter Construction Activity

by Learning Resources

Build your own alphabet letters. Practice making shapes & preparing to write!

- Work through your child's name. Take a picture of each of their letters to make a picture of their whole name once you're done.
- Talk about straight lines and curved lines. These are great pre-writing vocabulary words.

Alphabet Flash Cards

by Smarty Kids

Alphabet flash cards featuring different kinds of animals.

- Talk about the difference between lowercase and uppercase letters.
- Take the flash cards to the store or to places where you might have to wait.
- Have your child identify the letters on the cards while you read the animal's name.
